

17th International Conference Accounting and Management

This year, for the nineteenth time, the International Scientific and Professional Conference Accounting and Management was held in Primošten in hotel Zora Adriatic. It was organised by Croatian Accountant, the association of accountants, tax advisors and financial experts and RRiF College of Financial Management. The Conference has gathered lecturers, university professors, as well as the professionals from the world of business. The goal of the Conference was to present and publish scientific and professional papers, to exchange experience and to contribute to the development of accountancy and management in the EU countries and the countries of the region.

At the opening of this year's conference participants were addressed by Ljerka Markota, PhD., and Miroslav Buzadžić Vice President of the association Croatian Accountant.

During the conference, scientists and experts from the region and the European Union exchanged opinions and practices of their countries.

The papers of the participants were published in the Conference Proceedings.
